

Minutes of the Limpsfield Parish Council Planning Committee held on Tuesday September 7th 2021, 9.00AM at Berry House, Limpsfield High Street.

Attending: Mark Wilson (Chair), Philip Bailey, John Thompson and Sophie Martin (Clerk)

1. Apologies for Absence

Ted Beresford Knox

2. Declaration of interest

None

3. To ratify current planning applications for objection

- a. 2021/1441T – Ballards Lane / A25 Telecoms Monopole – agreed to submit objection following previous submission to the communications company. The residents' campaign to object to the application has also been noted and communication with the applicant is continuing.
- b. 2021/1038 - Detillens House, High Street (to uphold previous objection following subsequent alterations). The LPC upholds its original position to object to this application (as submitted on 21 July 2021). The committee will review comments by Heritage Officer, Christopher Reynolds regarding materials and the subsequent application alterations and consider whether to submit further comment.
- c. 2021/1183 - 12/14 Titsey Road. Owing to the location and importance of the cottages in relation to the Conservation Area and history of the development of the village, the Committee objects to this application and has drafted an objection letter to be circulated prior to submission.

The next scheduled Planning Committee Meeting will take place on Tuesday 28th September at 6pm.
